Your guide

Our holiday in the Dolomites are led by a passionate, experienced mountain enthusiast who will speak good English in addition to at least one of the principal languages of the region - Italian, German or Ladin. They will have a professional outdoor leadership qualification, know the area well and most importantly, be great fun to trek with.

Our holidays in the Dolomites are led by a passionate, experienced mountain enthusiast who will speak good English in addition to at least one of the principal languages of the region - Italian, German or Ladin. They will have a professional outdoor leadership qualification, know the area well and most importantly, be great fun to trek with.

One such guide is Alberto de Giuli

Alberto, or “Albi” as he is called by his friends, was born in Northern Italy’s Padova and began visiting the Dolomites when he was a child. He climbed his first via ferrata at age 14, but it was when he took a climbing course with a guide at age 21 that everything else became secondary. From this experience, the desire to become a mountain guide began to burn in him, with the realization that it was possible to make a living while pursuing his passion.

Albi studied economics and earned his degree from the University in Venice in 2005. In 2007 he moved to Arabba in the Dolomites and began his mountain guide coursework, and started guiding full time as an Aspirant Guide in late 2008. In Fall of 2011 he earned his UIAGM/IFMGA Mountain Guide certification, becoming a professional mountain guide, and today he guides trekking, mountaineering, rock climbing, via ferrata, snow shoeing, heli skiing, ski touring, ski safari, and ice climbing itineraries. While based in the Dolomites, Albi has also guided in other areas of the Alps including Austria, Switzerland, and France (including Chamonix). He loves to explore, and whether it is in the Dolomites or beyond, he enjoys taking guests on routes where none of them have been - including himself - so that there is a unique, new adventure for everyone!

“I have a deep passion for what I do in the mountains,” he says. This is unmistakable - the minute you sit down to talk to Albi, his face lights up with enthusiasm for guiding and climbing and skiing and the Dolomites! He is also enthusiastic about Dolomites cuisine - and is happy to offer suggestions about the best dishes at restaurants and the huts (he has many grateful, satisfied customers), as well as to recommend wines and grappas. Albi is fluent in Italian and English, and also speaks a bit of French.

Trip summary

The circuit commences in the Sesto Group of mountains that encompass the Tre Cime di Lavaredo. These are bisected by the administrative border between Italy's German-speaking south Tyrol and the predominantly Italian Veneto region - the frontier between Hapsburg, Austria and Italy until 1918. The entire range was involved in the First World War, and wherever you turn you'll see evidence, like trench systems gouged by hand out of the rough dolomite surface and defensive barricades of stones heaped up by platoons of soldiers.

The circuit continues, crossing the Fanes-Sennes-Braies National Park with a spectacular traverse beneath the blood red Croda Rossa massif and then onto the beautiful Altopiano di Fanes, climbing to rifugio Valparola, close many wartime remnants. From here you head south, and then east, concluding the circuit beneath the dramatic Croda da Lago massif, before returning to elegant Cortina d'Ampezzo.

The food and accommodation is a real highlight on this trek, with the delightful family-run rifugios offering an excellent mix of Italian, Ladin and typical mountain fare. A rifugio menu may offer various crispy salads from their own garden, handmade pasta dishes such as homemade tagliatelle with a venison sauce, as well as Tyrolean specialties such as barley soup and tutres (pancakes filled with ricotta cheese, canederli (bread dumplings) with goulash (stew) or in broth and pressknödel (crushed canederli) with sauerkraut. For the sweet-toothed there are delicious cakes and desserts including sweet strudel, kaiserschmarrn (an Austrian crepe-like pancake covered with powdered sugar and jam), and tyrolean sacher torte.

Whilst this trip is graded Moderate, you will be walking between 4-7 hours each day, with optional additional ascents or circuits on the shorter days. You will trek on average 6-10 miles per day on a variety of surfaces, including rugged single-track trails, uneven gravelly surfaces, and scree slopes, and some are very steep. Having good balance and being sure footed on trails is important. We walk at a comfortable pace and there are ample stops for water/ snacks to keep you going. Trekking poles are recommended.

Please note that this itinerary and daily walks may vary based on weather condition, group members and/or the recommendations of your guide.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Fly London to Venice (Marco Polo Airport). Group transfer to hotel.

On arrival at Marco Polo Airport, Venice, there will be a single group transfer to your hotel in Cortina. This is timed to fit the group flight, please contact us for further information.

When you arrive in Cortina you will have time to stroll the streets of this elegant resort before dinner.

Overnight: Hotel Beppe Sello or Similar, Cortina (Meals: D)

Day 2: Drive to Lago Landro. Trek to Rifugio Prato Piazza, 2,040m/6,693ft - 4-6 hours walking.

Today you will be transferred to Lago Landro, 1,409m/4,622ft, close to the Tre Cime di Lavaredo. Tre Cime di Lavaredo means the 'three peaks of Lavaredo', also called the Drei Zinnen in German and these three distinctive battlement-like peaks from east to west, are Cima Piccola/Kleine Zinne (little peak), Cima Grande/Große Zinne (big peak) and Cima Ovest/Westliche Zinne (western peak). You begin your hike on Route 34 winding up the trail to a saddle at 2,200m/7,218ft. From here you will ascend Monte Specie, 2,307m/7,569ft, for a fantastic view of the surrounding peaks. You will then return to the saddle and descend to Rifugio Prato Piazza, 2,040m/6,693ft, for a late lunch. This will also be your home for the night. Here you will enjoy fantastic views of the Croda Rossa (Red Wall) Massif, 2,818m/9,245ft, and the Cristallo group.

In the afternoon you can choose to take an excursion to the top of the Pico di Vallandro, 2,838m/9,311ft. This is a straightforward climb, except for the final narrow exposed track which is fitted with a hand-rail cable. On top, with breath-taking 360° views, you will be able to survey most of the northern Dolomites, from the spectacular eastern Sesto formations, south across the famous Cortina mountains and beyond.

800m/2,624ft ascent, 200m/6,56ft descent.

Overnight: Rifugio Prato Piazza (Meals: B D)

Day 3: Traverse beneath the Croda Rossa Massif, crossing the Fanes-Sennes-Braies National Park to Rifugio Fodara Vedla - 6-7 hours walking.

Today you enjoy a panoramic crossing of the Fanes-Sennes-Braies Park with good wildlife spotting opportunities along the way. Look out for chamois, marmots and ibex. Highlights en route are the spectacular section below the northern face of Croda Rossa Mountain and Prato Piazza, set in an idyllic high-altitude pasture valley.

The walk will take you through forest, lunar landscape and beautiful high alpine pasture land. There is one section with a 500m cable; this is not an actual via ferrata that you clip in to, but asentiero attrezzato - a handrail for your protection.

As you descend towards the end of the day's walk, the landscape will increasingly shift from rock-strewn paths to lush meadows and the vistas of the Sennes and Croda Rossa will become increasingly impressive. Croda Rossa is named for its blood red rock, caused by the presence of iron oxide. According to legend though, the mountain blushes in sympathy with Princess Moltina, who as a timid newlywed, was subject to spiteful ridicule when a jealous noblewoman exposed her humble origins as she had been brought up by marmots.

Distance: 14-16 km/8.5-10 miles. 240m/7,87ft ascent 144-290m/472-951ft descent. (Distance and altitude gain/loss depends on the trail followed).

Overnight: Rifugio Fodara Vedla (Meals: B D)

Day 4: Trek to Rifugio Pederu crossing of the Fanes-Sennes-Braies Natural Park - 6 hours.

Today's rewarding hike constitutes an especially panoramic diagonal crossing of the Fanes-Sennes-Braies Natural Park. New landscapes are revealed every step of the way and there are ample opportunities to see wildlife. Highlights en route are the spectacular section below the northern face of Croda Rossa, 2,818m/9,245ft, translated to Rote Wand in German, or Red Mountain in English so-called for the blood-red color of the rock which due to the presence of iron oxide.

Departing from Rifugio Fodara Vedla this morning, you begin by taking path n.9 towards Rifugio Malga Ra Stua 1,688m/5,538ft. Arriving at Campo Croce, 1,772m/5,814ft you hike up to Lake de Fosses following trail n.26. You then continue the loop reaching Rifugio Biella, 2,300m/7,546ft before rejoining the jeep track. Next you turn left near a low shed, and hike south downhill to Rifugio Sennes. From there you continue on path 7A following a panoramic ridge with views of the Croda del Becco, Croda Rossa, and Cristallo. Now you'll hike towards Rifugio Pederù, your home for the night at 1,548m/5,079ft. The final section of the trail to the rifugio descends steeply on a dirt road for 50 minutes - the last part of the road approaching the rifugio is a 20% slope.

16.5 km/10 miles, 702m/2,300ft ascent, 1,120 m/3,675ft descent.

Overnight: Rifugio Fanes (Meals: B D)

Day 5: Trek from Rifugio Pederu to Rifugio Valparola, 2,168m/7,113ft - 4-5 hours.

Leaving Rifugio Pederu this morning you hike uphill in the direction of Lago di Limo/Rifugio Fanes. When you reach lake Lé Piciodel (before you reach Lago di Limo), to the south of the trail (on your left), you'll be hiking through a landscape studded with little lakes and rounded mountain tops along the Ru d'Al Plan River (path n.7/Alta Via n.1). When you reach a fork you follow the trail to the left and away from the river, toward Lago di Limo. Eventually you will arrive at Rifugio Fanes, 2,060m/6,759ft, a perfect spot for lunch.

Departing Rifugio Fanes, you trek south on gentle curves out of a steep valley (or on steeper shortcuts) to Passo di Limo, 2,172m/7,126ft. Once you are out of the valley, you will find the beautiful Lago di Limo on your left. Walking past an old military building and wooden cross, you head down towards Malga Fanes Grande, a cheery converted farm offering light meals and basic accommodation. The route continues through beautiful high meadow and past karst formations, and then descends to Capanna Alpina, 1,726m/5,663ft, a restaurant built at the edge of the Natural Park, in an incredible setting. From here, there will be a private transfer, organised with Taxi Vico, to take you to Rifugio Valparola for the night.

14km/8.7 miles, 946m/3,106ft ascent, 761m/2,499 descent.

Overnight: Rifugio Valparola (Meals: B D)

Day 6: Trek to Rifugio Averau, 2,413m/7,917ft - 2-3 hours walking.

Your walk today is relatively short but you'll enjoy some of the most spectacular views for which the Lagazuoi mountain range is famous. This part of the Dolomites is also known for the extensive tunnels that were built by the Italians and Austro-Hungarian soldiers here during the great war, to wrest control of the Dolomites region, and you will come across many remnants of this period as you walk.

From Rifugio Valparola, you take the path following alongside Lago di Valparola, then on to the Tre Sassi Museum where they have the most fascinating and varied collection of objects used during the great war in the Dolomites (entrance payable locally).

From the museum, you take path 424 until you reach Passo Falzarego. From the pass, change, and follow path n.441, which is slightly uphill and overlooked to the north by the imposing Tofane group, you'll pass the small but enchanting Limides Lake. From here, the hike becomes a little steeper, however, it continues to be very panoramic, and after a short, slightly exposed, easy stretch, you reach the Forcella Averau and the Averau mountain hut, 2,413m/7,917ft. The panorama that opens to 360° is truly outstanding! There is an option to continue for about half an hour to get to the Nuvolau Mountain Hut at 2,575m (your guide will discuss this with you).

Distance: 6.4 km/3.9 miles, 370m/1,213ft ascent, 137m/449 descent

Overnight: Rifugio Averau (Meals: B D)

Day 7: Trek under the Croda da Lago Massif to Malga Federa or Ponte Fedra - 6-7 hours walking. Drive to Cortina d'Ampezzo.

For your last day on the trail you will enjoy a beautiful hike around the Croda da Lago massif, 2,236m/1,389ft.

Leaving Rifugio Averau you descend on path 464/452 to Passo Giau, 2,236m/7,336ft. This will take around 1.5 hours with roughly 70m of ascent and 240m of descent. From Passo Giau you follow path n.436 past a chapel, and begin to hike uphill to the rear of grassy Col Piombin, that takes its name from a past mining activity. The trail leads over the Forcella Giau, 2,360m/7,742ft, with plenty of ups and downs. From here the views of the Tofana and Lastoi de Formin are inspiring, not to mention the mountains on display to the south: Monte Fromin, Cernerera, Pelmo and the upswept flank of Monte Mondeval. The path drops to cross streams, and then gains the earthy saddle Forcella Ambrizzola, 2,277m/7,470ft. At Forcella Ambrizzola you take the left hand path 434 to Rifugio Croda da Lago G Palmieri, 2,042m/ 6,699ft, and enjoy the descent to Malga Federa, where a private taxi will take you to your hotel in Cortina. This section will take around 4-5 hours to complete covering a distance of 9km/5.5 miles, with 303m/994ft of ascent, 695m/2,280ft of descent.

A good alternative to the descent on the dirt road is the new path 'Gores de Federa'. The path is not marked on the maps as it was created in June 2019. Look out for the sign by the fencing at Malga Federa. The new 'Gores de Federa' path follows the course of the Federa river, passing by natural waterfalls and suspended wooden bridges. Soon you'll reach Ponte Federa where you'll meet your private transfer to your hotel. This descent of less than a mile will take an additional 30 minutes, taking you 660m downhill.

Overnight: Hotel Beppe Sello or Similar, Cortina (Meals: B D)

Day 8: Group transfer to Venice Marco Polo Airport for your flight to London.

After breakfast, there will be a group transfer to Venice Marco Polo airport which is timed to fit the group flight. Please check with the office for details. (Meals: B)

Our grading system

Dolomites Circuit Trek is graded as a Vigorous trekking holiday, as described below.

Vigorous

Typically these trips involve 8 to 14 days (occasionally more) trekking in relatively remote landscapes. High passes up to 4,900m/16,000ft may be crossed (sometimes snow-covered) and there may also be glacier travel and peak ascents. Walking days can be between 5 and 8 hours with considerable ascents and descents. This grade also covers some European treks of shorter durations. Overnight stops on trek could be in tea houses, mountain huts or camping.

These holidays would suit enthusiastic hill/mountain walkers.

Your accommodation

We will endeavour to secure the hotels named in the itinerary but if our first choice of hotel is not available we will book a suitable alternative of a similar standard.

Hotel Beppe Sello or Similar, Cortina

The 3* Beppe Sello Hotel is located just a short, 10-minute walk from the centre of Cortina d'Ampezzo. All 13 of its sunny rooms provide relaxing accommodation and feature balconies with enchanting views of the mountains. The hotel has a restaurant that offers both local specialties and sophisticated international cuisine. Beppe Sello has been honored with the prestigious "Marchio Ospitalità Italiana," awarded to establishments that offer guests high quality accommodation and restaurants.

Rifugio Prato Piazza

Rifugio Prato Piazza lies in a quiet, sunny location directly facing the giant limestone peaks of the Dolomites Fanes-Sennes-Braies Natural Park, and is one of the few that can easily be reached by car. Equipped with a large sunny terrace, the hut accommodates 46 guests. Gourmets are always happy to stop at here, as in the typical wood-furnished Tyrolean 'stuben', you can taste both local delicacies and Italian cuisine.

Rifugio Fodara Vedla

The family run Rifugio Fodara Vedla sits at the heart of the Fanes-Senes-Braies Natural Park at 1,965m/6,447ft, in a vast, green basin used as mountain pasture in the summer and surrounded by the soaring Dolomites. The cooking at the Fodara Vedla is outstanding with delicious Ladin dishes, served in the comfortable wooden stuben, which is traditionally the room in a farmhouse where the stove was located and cooking took place.

Rifugio Pederu

Rifugio Pederu has been welcoming trekkers and travellers for 50 years. Set in the heart of the Fanes-Senes-Braies Natural Park, on a large alpine plateau, it is surrounded by jagged Dolomitic rock and meadowland. The rifugio serves hearty Tyrolean meals and has a stube (bar area) to relax in. There are various room types all of which have balconies overlooking the scenic valley beyond

Rifugio Valparola

Located on the Valparola pass, nearby an emerald green lake, the Rifugio Valparola overlooks the stunning mountain ranges of Col di Lana and Marmolada glacier. The ambience is warm and cozy. Just a short walk from Rifugio Valparola you can visit the Forte Tre Sassi, a well preserved fortress built by the Austrian Hungarian troops in preparation for WW1 and used as a military storage during the war. The fortress is now home to one of the most popular WW1 museums of the Dolomites.

Rifugio Averau

Rifugio Averau is a gem among mountain huts. Tucked under the rocky spears of Averau peak, 2,649m, it is known for its beautiful vistas and excellent kitchen. Decorated with wood in the authentic style of the region, it sleeps 40. But dinners are where the Averau shines, with extremely refined cuisine and prestigious Italian and international certificates attesting to its quality.

Meal arrangements

Breakfasts and dinners included; lunches are not included.

The nature of adventure travel

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

Trip altitude

Important - please be aware that this trip involves travel at altitude. Whilst all our itineraries are carefully designed to optimise acclimatisation to high altitudes, participants on this trip are likely to experience some symptoms of being at altitude. The Dossier pack we provide when you book your holiday includes comprehensive advice on safe travel at altitude. If you require further information or advice on travel at altitude prior to booking please contact the office to speak to an experienced member of our team. Alternatively we recommend www.medex.org.uk as a good source of information.

What our clients say

From the outset an immaculate and smart Mercedes taxi collected us. Our guide Michele was excellent in every respect, his immense knowledge of the mountains, spoken English, sense of fun and humour all made for a great guide throughout the trek. He thought to book ahead for lunch stops which was essential. The Rifugios were all of a high standard as was the food and wine offer, certainly way better than in the western Italian alps. Simple things like decent bathrooms, towels and linens all added to the sense of family run and caring Rifugios...The scenery was breathtaking aided by fabulous weather. The Dolomite range are a wonder of the world. Many thanks for organising such a great trek.

-Mr M R, Cumbria

Just back from MK trip trekking in Dolomites - absolutely superb. A simply amazing holiday. I was extremely happy with every aspect of this trip. It was for me, hugely enjoyable.

-Ms T, Herefordshire

I do appreciate the level of accommodation that MK provides - it was a great trip.

-Ms S, Yorkshire

Holiday was excellent. Excellent route, weather, views, food and great bunch of fellow travellers. And the guides were outstanding.. We chose this holiday over other similar treks because it promised time spent exploring the military history and the trip exceeded our expectations with an alternative descent down a WW1 tunnel network.

- Mrs F, Hampshire

The best one week walking trip I have ever been on. Whatever you do add the Dolomites Circuit to your "bucket list". The scenery is stunning, the route well planned and the mountain Refugios all had a bar with ice cold beers to salute the end of the day.

-Mr P Schulz, Berkshire

This is an excellent trek and I would use superlatives to describe the unbeatable views and scenery, the superb refugios, which must be the best in Europe and our brilliant guide Paulo.

Mountain Kingdoms - distinctly different

Truly independent

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT CLIMATE EMERGENCY PLAN

For over 33 years, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now offer trips to all corners of the world, but we are conscious that inevitably our holidays have a detrimental impact on the world around us, and we want to do all we can to reduce our carbon emissions. We are a signatory to Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency, along with a growing number of like-minded, reputable tour operators. For more information, please visit www.tourismdeclares.com

From 2020 onwards, we will be focusing on how we can reduce the carbon emissions that our holidays produce, and how to counterbalance this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole:

Carbon Offsetting

Already doing:

- ✓ We have been offsetting carbon since 2007, but will be increasing our donations to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru this year. This is with a trusted partner where the funds go directly to a project where the community plants trees on its own land.

Will do:

- ✓ We are working on making our carbon offsetting more accurate and targeted.
- ✓ In future, we will add to that a further estimate for carbon produced by hotels, local road travel, trains and internal flights to arrive at a carbon offset sum for each trip we operate.
- ✓ Carbon offsetting will be included in our holiday prices. For our Flight Inclusive holidays it will include the international flight and any emissions produced by inland travel and accommodation. Our Land Only prices will include the cost of offsetting emissions caused by inland travel and accommodation.

Reducing Carbon Emissions

Already doing:

- ✓ We already offer the majority of our customers a free filtered water bottle which means they can instantly cut down on their single-use plastic consumption. This will be an ongoing project.
- ✓ We already predominantly use locally owned hotels, but will continue to ensure that, where possible, we use these rather than multinational chains.
- ✓ We have joined the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside like-minded travel companies, to work together to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.

Will do:

- ✓ We will re-evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We will stop offering unnecessary optional flights – for example our Everest sightseeing trip.
- ✓ We will eliminate unnecessary staff flights wherever possible.
- ✓ We will look at minimising internal flights.
- ✓ We will be asking all our worldwide agents and suppliers to look at their own carbon footprint and encourage them to reduce it.
- ✓ We will promote our more low impact trips to give customers an informed choice.

As part of our wider commitment to Responsible Tourism, we will continue to support a number of charities with whom we have had a long standing relationship over many years. These include: Shiva Charity in Nepal (Ginette Harrison School), Simien Mountains Mobile Medical Service and Porter Welfare, as well as setting aside a sum for emergency disaster relief should the need arise.
