Your guide

Nepal

Whether it's a cultural tour, gentle walking holiday or strenuous trek, our holidays in Nepal are led by professionally-trained English speaking leaders. They have an intimate and expert knowledge of the history, culture and nature of Nepal and will make your trip a memorable experience.

Bhutan

You will have an English speaking Bhutanese guide. Mountain Kingdoms have been working with the same partner in Bhutan since 1986. Their guides are some of the best in the Kingdom. They speak fluent English, as this is taught in all Bhutanese schools, and are fully qualified guides. The Tourism Authority of Bhutan insists that a Bhutanese trek or tour leader must pass his/her guiding exams in Thimphu before accompanying groups of foreign visitors.

Trip summary

Temples, dzongs, and mythical tiger tales are at the heart of this two week journey into the Buddhist heartlands of Nepal and Bhutan. By taking to the trail on two short treks, you'll not only enjoy the best approach to several key cultural and religious sights, but you'll also get to experience the superb scenery and authentic rural life of these two captivating countries.

You begin in Kathmandu, but immediately leave the hubbub of the city behind and head instead to the quieter medieval towns, terraced fields and traditional villages of the Kathmandu Valley. Here you spend a full day exploring one of the jewels of the valley, Bhaktapur. This once royal city with its red-brick streets, open squares and towering, pagoda-style temples is a showcase for some of the finest, and best preserved, architecture in all of Nepal. From Bhaktapur you drive to Dhulikel, poised on the high ridge above the valley, and the starting point for your scenic trek. Over the course of three days you will enjoy sweeping views of Himalayan mountains, discover villages little-changed by time and visit the sacred Buddhist pilgrimage site of Namu Buddha Stupa. Also known as the 'den of the tigress' it is believed to be the place where the young Buddha prince valiantly sacrificed himself to save a clutch of starving tiger cubs.

Flying on to Bhutan, you will savour some equally impressive sights. Punakha and Paro Dzongs are two of the most magnificent in the kingdom whilst colossal Buddha statues and ancient lhakhangs (temples) reflect the deep, spirituality of the Bhutanese people. You explore on foot, taking easy-paced picturesque walks that give you time to enjoy Bhutan's lush landscapes and to get a sense of its timeless quality. You will also attend a colourful tsechu (festival) for the complete Bhutanese experience.

Your holiday culminates in a two day trek to reach the kingdom's most celebrated sight, Taktsang - the Tiger's Nest Monastery. Perched high on a cliff top its location and name stems from another epic Buddhist legend involving a flying tigress, an heroic saint and several evil demons! Your trek begins in the Paro Valley where you meet your trek crew and step out on the lesser known Bumdra Trail which climbs steeply from the valley floor to reach Bumdra Monastery. From here there are breathtaking views as far as the high Himalayan peaks in the north. You will enjoy a night under canvas in this privileged spot. The following day you trek on to the Tiger's Nest, which is gradually revealed below you, giving a rare perspective of the most iconic sight in the Thunder Dragon Kingdom.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Depart London.

Depart London on your overnight flight to Kathmandu.

Overnight: In flight

Day 2: Arrive Kathmandu. Group transfer to hotel in Bhaktapur.

On arrival in Kathmandu you will be met and transferred to your hotel in Bhaktapur. This ancient city, located just nine kilometres from Kathmandu, is a real cultural gem. Bhaktapur is one of three major cities built in the Kathmandu Valley by the old Malla kings who ruled the valley hundreds of years ago. These cities, Kathmandu, Patan and Bhaktapur, are repositories of traditional Nepalese architecture and local Newari craftsmanship where you will find ancient Hindu temples, Buddhist stupas, crumbling shrines, picturesque Rana palaces and crowded bazaars.

Overnight: Heritage Hotel, Bhaktapur

Day 3: Tour of Bhaktapur.

Today you will explore the streets and historic buildings of Bhaktapur.

Many of the buildings in Bhaktapur have their origins in the 15th Century and the side streets, being mostly brick paved, still have a really medieval feel to them. There is still evidence of the damage caused by the devastating 2015 earthquake; restoration has been slow but this hasn't spoiled Bhaktapur's ancient charm. This is very much a lived in city, and, with much of it closed to traffic, walking around is a pleasure and you will get a feeling for how things must have been in medieval times. Bhaktapur is quieter than Kathmandu city and still has quite a rural feel. The local people are predominantly farmers and the town is famous for its home-made yoghurt, as well as for its pottery made from the local red clay - you can see this production going on in the so-called 'pottery square' and other side streets.

On your tour you will see fine palaces and temples with gilded roofs, open courtyards and elaborate windows carved in wood. The main focus for the town is the central Durbar Square where many of the finest buildings are found, including the famous Palace of 55 Windows which shows some of the best examples of elaborately carved windows and doors.

Overnight: Heritage Hotel, Bhaktapur (Meals: BLD)

Day 4: Drive to Dhulikel - 1 hour. Start trek at 1,557m/5,108ft, trek along the ridge to Namobuddha, 1,777m/5,830ft - 3-4 hours.

You will leave this morning by vehicle climbing out of the Kathmandu Valley passing through the town of Banepa before climbing up to the Newari hilltop town of Dhulikhel where you begin your trek. It is a delightful trail with superb mountain vistas, verdant terraced fields, and picturesque villages where local people live their traditional rural lives.

The path initially winds up from Dhulikhel on the 1,000 steps which pilgrims use to reach the Kali Temple viewpoint, 1,688m. This takes about an hour. A very fine giant statue of Shakyamuni Buddha sits gazing out at the panorama of Himalayan peaks towering above 7,000m including Langtang Lirung, Gauri Shankar and Melungtse. You can also see the 14th highest peak in the world, Mount Shishapangma, 8,027m, which lies inside Tibet. Continuing on, you descend through the village of Kavre to cross a road at the Kavre Bangjang Junction. You then climb again through little hamlets up another set of steps to a shrine. You may see boys playing cricket, cattle in the yards of houses, and general village life. In November 2021 we saw a wedding ceremony, watched children playing on a swing, and listened to the sounds of tropical birds, barking dogs, tinkling of temple bells, and as people passed by the greeting of 'Namaste'.

You come to the very nice stupa Psthali, next to a football pitch. Descend from here to avoid the hotel built on the col. At a junction take the upper track to arrive at the beautiful Namo Buddha Lodge. Set on a hilltop the property was built in 2006 and is a collection of individual small houses set in forests and gardens. It is very eco friendly and has a sauna, two cats and three buffaloes and serves vegetarian food. There are also grand views of the Himalaya from the lodge.

Overnight: Namo Buddha Lodge or Similar, Namo Buddha (Meals: BLD)

Day 5: Trek to Balthali Village, 1,562m/5,125ft - 5 hours.

Dropping down a short way you come to a forested ridge with big drops on either side until you descend to a rough road. From here you get your first views of Namo Buddha Monastery.

For centuries Namo Buddha has been a famous Buddhist pilgrimage site where, it is said, the reincarnated Buddha selflessly offered his body to a hungry tigress so that she could feed her cubs. Hence the name, the Tigress' Den. The stupa is believed to house the bones of the young Buddha. The stupa is accessible by road and pilgrims visit Namo Buddha from all over the world to accumulate merit by making offerings and circumambulating the site. Sitting above the stupa, is the Thruangu Tashi Yangtse Monastery complex, founded in 1978 and now home to over 250 monks. Here you will find a stone depiction of the legend of the Buddha. After visiting the impressive stupa you descend on a trail decked out with masses of prayer flags. Continue losing height through forest to reach a road high above a large river below. Turn left down the road to reach a bridge and then climb into a beautiful valley of terraced fields, scattered houses and hamlets.

Entering Lower Balthali Village you come to a village temple with an enormous metal head of a trident spear propped against its wall. Cross fields on narrow paths and don't be surprised if friendly local dogs attach themselves to your party - they may stay with you today and tomorrow! Climb again easily now for quite a long way to Upper Balthali Village. The lodge sits astride a ridge and hilltop with fabulous views. There is an open fire to sit around in the evening to swap stories.

Overnight: Balthali Resort or Similar, Balthali Village (Meals: BLD)

Day 6: Trek to Panauti, 1,400m/4,594ft and Khopasi, 1,447m/4,747ft - 3-4 hours. Drive to Bhaktapur - 1 hour.

Your last day on trek in Nepal is a really nice one. Saying farewell to your hilltop stay, you begin with a 'short cut' down to the dirt road below. Across the other side of the valley are lovely terraced fields and hamlets. Carry on down to a village with a temple then continue down to cross a suspension bridge high above a deep gorge. Up a mostly forested hill on the other side and down to a second suspension bridge. Beyond here signs of 'civilisation' appear and before too long you enter a typical 'out-in-the-sticks', scruffy Nepalese town called Khopasi. Such a change in culture! As you leave town visit the paper factory and silk factory.

Carry on crossing fields to gain houses and Panauti town. As you reach the town proper you come to a 12th century temple with its own small museum. Here you meet your vehicle and drive to your hotel in Bhaktapur.

Overnight: Heritage Hotel, Bhaktapur (Meals: BLD)

Day 7: Transfer to Kathmandu Airport and fly to Paro in Bhutan. Drive to Thimphu and visit the giant statue of Buddha.

This morning you will transfer to the airport for the short flight across to Bhutan. On a clear day the panoramic views of the Himalaya are sensational, and include Everest and Kangchenjunga, but particularly exciting is the approach through the Bhutanese foothills into Paro which includes a few steep turns. Although you are at the mercy of the airline seating allocation, if possible try to sit on the left hand side of the plane for the most spectacular views.

In Paro you will be met by your Bhutanese guide and will drive to Thimphu. On the way you can stop to visit the 14th century Tachogang Lakhang, a beautiful spot.

Thimphu has an attractive valley location and is relatively small for a capital city but has grown greatly in recent years. There are many places of interest to visit but a good starting point is the giant Buddha figure perched high above the town which offers splendid, orientation views of Thimphu and beyond.

Overnight: Phuntso Pelri Hotel or Similar, Thimphu (Meals: BLD)

Day 8: Attend the Dechenphu Tsechu.

Today you will attend a traditional Bhutanese festival, or tsechu. The Dechenphu Tsechu takes place annually at Dechenphu Lakhkang near Thimphu. The Lakhang, and the tsechu, are dedicated to Gay Ngyen Jakpa Melen, a powerful guardian deity of Bhutan. Festivals are welcome opportunities for the Bhutanese to get together, not only to socialise and have fun, but also because the very act of attending a festival is thought to confer merit and wash away sins. Spectacular masked dances are performed, called shams, which are intended to give moral instruction, drive away evil spirits, promote good crops and celebrate the Buddhist faith in its many guises. Watch out for the very jolly clowns who tease onlookers and dancers alike.

Overnight: Phuntso Pelri Hotel or Similar, Thimphu (Meals: BLD)

Day 9: Morning walk to Wangditse Monastery. Afternoon sightseeing in Thimphu.

This morning you will drive up to Sangaygang next to the Bhutan Broadcasting Service tower, located in the northwest of Thimphu. The drive up to the tower isn't a long one so if you feel like you would like to burn a bit more energy you can always walk up instead. From the tower you will have great views over Thimphu Dzong and the Thimphu Valley as you start your walk contouring the beautiful hills to visit Wangditse Gumpa. This walk should take around 1½ hours. You will have time to visit the gumpa before the 30 minute descent to Dechen Phodrang Monastery. This monastery houses around 450 student monks enrolled on an eight year course. The monastery is also home to some fantastic UNESCO monitored 12th century paintings. You will then meet your vehicle and be driven back to Thimphu.

You return to Thimphu and in the afternoon there will be time to enjoy some sightseeing. There are many places of interest to visit in Thimphu, including the Tashichhodzong (the main government buildings), the Textile Museum, the Heritage Museum, the late King's Memorial Chorten, the National Library, the School of Painting and the silversmiths and pottery workshops. The Government Handicrafts Emporium is possibly the best place to look for local handicraft. It is interesting to visit the handmade paper workshop to see the paper being made and there are some nice items made from handmade paper for sale there. You could also visit the Post Office to buy some of Bhutan's very attractive stamps, they will even print a valid stamp with your face on it while you wait! They also have good t-shirts on sale.

Overnight: Phuntso Pelri Hotel or Similar, Thimphu (Meals: BLD)

Day 10: Drive to Punakha over the Dochu La. Three Temples walk from Jibjokha - 4-5 hours.

After breakfast you will drive east to Punakha. Leaving Thimphu you climb to cross the Dochu La Pass, 3,048m/10,000ft, a spot marked by 108 chortens. Here, weather permitting you may take in a magnificent mountain vista. On clear days there are fabulous views of the eastern Himalaya including Bhutan's highest mountain, Gangkar Punsum, 7,550m - the highest unclimbed peak in the world. But even on misty days this is a beautiful spot.

You descend from the pass into the lush Punakha Valley then drive to the Jibjokha Valley to do the Three Temples walk. This is a new, circular, day walk in three scenic valleys that follows undulating paths and tracks through picturesque, open farmland, shady woods and vast rice terraces. In the autumn, these terraces can appear to glow with a golden hue as the sunlight hits the rice stalks swaying in the wind. There's not too much ascent and no steep climbs so it's an opportunity for a gentle walk to see traditional village life in rural Bhutan. It is a walk that was created for Mountain Kingdoms so don't expect to see other westerners on the trail.

Walking from the Kuenga Zhedheyling farmhouse you pass through the rice terraces, soon encountering your first temple (or lakhang) at the tiny settlement of Jibjokha. There are some interesting statues to see here.

As you progress, your guide will point out Pangtse Shing (Symlocus) trees near the trail. This tree has many medicinal benefits and is also used for dyes and for the oil from its seeds which is prized in Bhutanese cuisine. In spring you will see the trees in flower and then the fruits appear in the autumn when the oil is extracted.

Your hike continues through fields into the Wangkha Valley where you will find your second temple built 40 years ago by the locals. After leaving the lakhang you will come across the house of Aum Karma Dem and may be able to rest awhile in her front garden and enjoy a cup of tea. Continuing on through more terraces the trail then enters some woods providing welcome shade if the weather is warm. At the end of the woods you reach a feeder 'road' leading into the Dawakha Valley. This valley is much more populated than the others. The main village here is Dawakha, which sits on high ground affording good views of the surrounding hills and valleys. This is the home of the third temple of the walk. There is also a shop in the village so you may be able to grab a cold drink before setting off downhill on a wooded track to get back to Jibjokha. After your walk you drive to your accommodation.

Overnight: Zhingkham Resort or Similar, Punakha (Meals: BLD)

Day 11: Visit Punakha Dzong. Drive to Paro. Sightseeing in Paro.

Your day begins in style with a return to Punakha Dzong. Originally built in the 17th century, it was beautifully restored after a major flood in 1994, and is a real showcase for Bhutanese craftsmanship and painting. All of Bhutan's kings have been crowned at the dzong and it remains the official residence of the Drukgyal - the body that oversees monastic affairs in Bhutan. There are a number of beautiful and unusual features to discover in the dzong including three courtyards, the 'hundred pillar assembly hall' and its cantilevered bridge. If there are VIPs visiting the dzong, access may be restricted.

You now drive back to Paro, crossing the Dochu La again. Once in Paro, you will enjoy an afternoon of sightseeing. You will visit the ancient temple of Kyichu Lhakang, one of the oldest in Bhutan, which was one of 108 temples built by Songtsen Gampo an important early Tibetan king, to pin down the Bon demon that was thought to hover over the whole of Tibet.

You will also spend time at Bhutan's National Museum to see some of the treasures housed in the Ta Dzong, or watch tower, above the Dzong. Displays include a fascinating collection of ancient thangkhas depicting Bhutan's important saints and teachers. You then visit the spectacular Paro Dzong. This dzong is one of Bhutan's most impressive and best-known, and is perhaps the finest example of Bhutanese architecture you'll see. The massive buttressed walls that tower over the town are visible throughout the valley. The dzong's correct name, Rinchen Pung Dzong (usually shortened to Rinpung Dzong), means 'Fortress on a Heap of Jewels'. In 1644 Zhabdrung Ngawang Namgyal ordered the construction of the dzong on the foundation of a monastery built by Guru Rinpoche. The fort was used on numerous occasions to defend the Paro valley from invasions by Tibet.

From the museum you may like to walk down into the town and have a wander around the streets before returning to your hotel.

Overnight: Hotel Olathang or Similar, Paro (Meals: BLD)

Day 12: Start the Bumdra Trek. Camp beneath Bumdra Monastery, 3,800m/12,467ft.

After breakfast you will take a short drive to the starting point of the two day trek to the Tiger's Nest Monastery, known as the Bumdra trek. You meet your trek crew and ponies, and then begin following a little trodden trail up from Paro Valley. Your initial ascent takes you up through forest to reach a ridge then to a clearing from where you will be able to see back down the Paro Valley. Continuing up, you next reach Chhoe Tse Lhakhang temple, nestled in the side of the mountain, where you can rest and enjoy fine views of Paro beneath, and the snow-capped Himalaya in the distance. Today's final stage is now ahead of you as you ascend through ruins and thick forest to a high, open yak pasture bedecked with chortens and colourful prayer flags. This will be your campsite for the night at around 3,800m/12,467ft.

Above the pasture sits the 17th century Bumdra Monastery, hugging the cliff face. After a chance to rest and enjoy the spectacular views from the campsite you can walk up to the monastery and explore its many caves where legend has it that a thousand angels, or dakinis, once covered.

If you have the energy, you could also make the 45 minute climb of Namgo La just behind the monastery. The 4,100m peak provides a natural viewing 'platform' to enjoy the commanding vistas of the surrounding mountains and valleys.

Overnight: Camp (Meals: BLD)

Day 13: Trek to Taktsang Monastery. Return to Paro.

After a tough day of ascent yesterday, today is all downhill. Once breakfast is finished at the camp, you will begin your descent. Following the monks' winding path down through larch and silver pine you can take your first welcome breather on the conveniently located deck chairs at the small hermitage of Yoselang at 3,300m. Continuing down the trail you will shortly reach Zangto Pelhri Monastery, from where you can peer over the side for your first fantastic views down to the golden roofs of Taktsang Monastery. From here it's a steep half hour down a rock hewn staircase to Taktsang - an approach that very few people experience to reach the famed Tiger's Nest.

The monastery is perched some 600m/2,000ft up on a cliff overlooking Paro Valley and was said to be where the legendary Indian saint, Guru Padma Sambhava, flew from Tibet on the back of a tiger to defeat five demons, who were opposing the spread of Buddhism in Bhutan.

If open, you will be able to visit the monastery before continuing down to reach the car park where your vehicle will be waiting to take you back to your hotel in Paro, and your last night in Bhutan.

Overnight: Hotel Olathang or Similar, Paro (Meals: BLD)

Day 14: Fly to Kathmandu. Transfer to hotel. Time at leisure.

You will transfer to the airport where you will say goodbye to your Bhutanese guide and driver. You will then fly to Kathmandu with a further opportunity to see the peaks of the high Himalaya including Everest and Kangchenjunga (if conditions are clear). On arrival you will be driven to your hotel and the rest of the day is at leisure.

Overnight: Hotel Shanker or Similar, Kathmandu (Meals: B)

Day 15: Morning tour of Pashupatinath and Boudhanath Stupa. Transfer to airport. Depart Nepal.

After breakfast you drive the short distance from your hotel to the important Hindu temple complex of Pashupatinath. Here there is a large temple to the god Shiva and nearby, on the banks of the sacred Bagmati River, are burning ghats where Hindus bring their dead to be cremated.

You will drive on to Boudhanath where you will visit its important and ancient Buddhist stupa. Pilgrims from all over the Indian subcontinent come to visit Boudhanath where they circle the stupa in a clockwise direction, turning prayer wheels as they pass, or visit one of the many Buddhist temples which have been built around the stupa.

In the late afternoon or early evening there will be a group transfer to the airport for your overnight flight to the UK.

Overnight: In flight (Meals: B)

Day 16: Arrive London.

Our grading system

Tiger's Nest & Kathmandu Valley Trek, Nepal & Bhutan, is graded as a Gentle/Moderate trekking holiday, as described below.

Gentle

Trips within this grade typically mix sightseeing with easy-paced half and/or full day walks. On these trips, walks will be on relatively low altitude trails, for a duration of around 4-6 hours. On all of our Gentle graded trips, some ascent and descent should be anticipated, and there may occasionally be a longer walking day. Holidays within this grade generally use hotels and comfortable lodges although a few do have some nights camping.

These holidays are suitable for people who enjoy easy-paced walks in the British countryside or exploring on foot rather than in a vehicle.

Moderate

Holidays in this grade typically involve 5 to 10 days of walking or trekking. They will often venture into more remote country and can cross mountain passes. Altitudes though are still relatively low, going no higher than around 4,300m/14,000ft. Accommodation can include simple hotels, tea houses, lodges and camping.

Trip altitude

Important - please be aware that this trip involves travel at altitude. Whilst all our itineraries are carefully designed to optimise acclimatisation to high altitudes, participants on this trip are likely to experience some symptoms of being at altitude. The Dossier pack we provide when you book your holiday includes comprehensive advice on safe travel at altitude. If you require further information or advice on travel at altitude prior to booking please contact the office to speak to an experienced member of our team. Alternatively we recommend www.medex.org.uk as a good source of information.

To do this we have teamed up with the revolutionary company, Water-to-Go who have developed a multi-use drinking bottle with a reusable filter that eliminates over 99.9% of all microbiological contaminants. This makes water from virtually any source safe to drink and significantly reduces the need for travellers to buy bottles of water wherever they are in the world.

Our clients who are not given a free Mountain Kingdoms kit bag for their holiday (these are required for certain treks), will instead receive a free Mountain Kingdoms Water-to-Go bottle. These unique Water-to-Go bottles can also be purchased from us at a discounted rate.

For further information about our campaign visit <https://www.mountainkingdoms.com/water-to-go-reusable-bottle-campaign>.

Your accommodation

We will endeavour to secure the hotels named in this itinerary but if our first choice of hotel is unavailable we will book a suitable alternative of a similar standard.

Hotels in Bhutan

Please note that there is generally a shortage of hotel/lodge accommodation in Bhutan, especially outside Paro and Thimphu. Although we pre-book rooms as far in advance as possible, anything can happen and probably will, e.g. if the royal family suddenly has a visiting delegation, accommodation may be changed at short notice. Additionally, during peak seasons, it can sometimes be very difficult to secure not only the hotels/lodges we want, but also the single rooms we might need. In these circumstances singles may occasionally be asked to share but in such cases we refund any single room supplements that might apply. Given these conditions we will make every effort to secure any of the following hotels:

Heritage Hotel, Bhaktapur

Situated just a few minutes walk from the historic heart of the once royal city of Bhaktapur, the handsome Heritage Hotel reflects the rich artistic traditions of the Kathmandu Valley. Built from reclaimed materials from ancient palaces and residences, and fitted out with antiques and hand-carved furnishings, it offers an authentic taste of Nepali culture, but without sacrificing modern-day comforts. Well-appointed rooms come with big bathrooms, Wi-Fi and lots of homely touches and the hotel has its own bar, fine dining restaurant and al fresco eatery.

Namu Buddha Lodge or Similar, Namu Buddha

This is a delightful, eco-friendly lodge set in peaceful, woodland surroundings on a hilltop with fine views of the Himalaya. It offers superb hospitality and serves locally sourced, vegetarian food - they even have their own buffaloes! There is also fresh spring water from the lodge's spring, bottled for guests to drink in their rooms. Guest rooms are individual cottages, all unique and with bags of character and charm.

Balthalli Resort or Similar, Balthalli Village

The Balthalli Village Resort sits atop a hill giving delightful views of the surrounding terraced fields, villages and the distant outline of Himalayan peaks. This cosy retreat has a restaurant, bar and garden and the good-sized rooms come complete with private bathrooms and kettles.

Phuntso Pelri Hotel or Similar, Thimphu

Despite its somewhat dark entrance hall, this hotel is very well appointed, with custom made Bhutanese wooden furniture and good sized rooms. During busy periods, especially during festivals, we may use the Jomolhari Hotel, the Kisa Hotel, Hotel Gakyil, Hotel Osel or the Amodhara Hotel. These are amongst the best tourist class hotels in Thimphu.

Zhingkhram Resort or Similar, Punakha

The nature of adventure travel

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

What we say

This is a great trip - it gives you a great opportunity to explore these countries through trekking, walking and sightseeing, with the excellent guides sharing some hidden gems with you, along the way. There are a couple of challenging days but the rewards for your hard work are well worth it. This is a really interesting area of the world to visit and an opportunity to see a way of life that is rare to see, and which seems to take you back in time, which leaves its mark on you.

-Susan, W Sussex

Our multi mix trip of trekking and sightseeing to Nepal and Bhutan was a delight. The itinerary well put together with trekking and altitude gradually getting more difficult as we approached the finale of an amazing and challenging day hiking 500 metres above Tigers Nest Monastery. The scenery in Kathmandu Valley and then Bhutan was breath taking. Much to wonder about the culture of both countries. Guides and hotel accommodation first class.

Mountain Kingdoms - distinctly different

Truly independent

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT CLIMATE EMERGENCY PLAN

For over 33 years, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now offer trips to all corners of the world, but we are conscious that inevitably our holidays have a detrimental impact on the world around us, and we want to do all we can to reduce our carbon emissions. We are a signatory to Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency, along with a growing number of like-minded, reputable tour operators. For more information, please visit www.tourismdeclares.com

From 2020 onwards, we will be focusing on how we can reduce the carbon emissions that our holidays produce, and how to counterbalance this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole:

Carbon Offsetting

Already doing:

- ✓ We have been offsetting carbon since 2007, but will be increasing our donations to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru this year. This is with a trusted partner where the funds go directly to a project where the community plants trees on its own land.

Will do:

- ✓ We are working on making our carbon offsetting more accurate and targeted.
- ✓ In future, we will add to that a further estimate for carbon produced by hotels, local road travel, trains and internal flights to arrive at a carbon offset sum for each trip we operate.
- ✓ Carbon offsetting will be included in our holiday prices. For our Flight Inclusive holidays it will include the international flight and any emissions produced by inland travel and accommodation. Our Land Only prices will include the cost of offsetting emissions caused by inland travel and accommodation.

Reducing Carbon Emissions

Already doing:

- ✓ We already offer the majority of our customers a free filtered water bottle which means they can instantly cut down on their single-use plastic consumption. This will be an ongoing project.
- ✓ We already predominantly use locally owned hotels, but will continue to ensure that, where possible, we use these rather than multinational chains.
- ✓ We have joined the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside like-minded travel companies, to work together to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.

Will do:

- ✓ We will re-evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We will stop offering unnecessary optional flights – for example our Everest sightseeing trip.
- ✓ We will eliminate unnecessary staff flights wherever possible.
- ✓ We will look at minimising internal flights.
- ✓ We will be asking all our worldwide agents and suppliers to look at their own carbon footprint and encourage them to reduce it.
- ✓ We will promote our more low impact trips to give customers an informed choice.

As part of our wider commitment to Responsible Tourism, we will continue to support a number of charities with whom we have had a long standing relationship over many years. These include: Shiva Charity in Nepal (Ginette Harrison School), Simien Mountains Mobile Medical Service and Porter Welfare, as well as setting aside a sum for emergency disaster relief should the need arise.
